

We're Coming Millions Strong

Sung by JAMES P. ALLAN

Words by
S. J. Bassett

Music by
K. C. Brown

LOUIS H. ROSS
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
218 Tremont Street
BOSTON

5

WE'RE COMING MILLIONS STRONG

Words by S. J. BASSETT

Music by K. C. BROWN

Tempo di Marcia

Out from the cold Da - ko - tas, Back from the Gold - en West,
 When we join hands to - mor - row, Out on the bat - tle line,

Com - ing up from the South - land From the ones we love the We'll star - tle Fritz in his bur - row With sounds of Auld lang best, We'll tip up the East - ern sea - board From Syne. With war songs of ev - 'ry na - tion With

Copyright, 1917, by K. C. Brown

Tam - pa to Bos - ton Bay, We'll fol - low our no - ses
Tom - toms from eve - ry clime, And chaps from all ov - er

East - ward, The boys of U. S. A. cre - a - tion, Each yel - ling his own Hot Time.

CHORUS

Then hold fast Jac - que and Tom - my! You may have tho't it long, Hold on I - van and

Ton - y!      We're ma - ny mil - lions strong.      Hold hard brave lads and doubt us not, Tho' meb-be we've been long.      Lest Auld ac - quaint - ence be for - got, We're com - ing mil - lions strong.      strong.

1 2

